Since 1926, the Junior League of Toronto (JLT) has made a positive impact on the quality of life for thousands of GTA residents by contributing millions of volunteer hours and more than $4 million to the community. Our volunteers fulfill the Junior League mission by promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Our purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. As a member of the Association of Junior Leagues International, the JLT is one of 294 Junior Leagues in four countries representing 170,000 women.

Junior League of Toronto reaches out to women of all cultures who seek active community involvement and opportunities for leadership through voluntarism. Headquarters are in Toronto, with an active group in Etobicoke/Oakville/Mississauga and another in Newmarket/Aurora/King City.

Locally, the JLT perpetuates its legacy through quality direct service delivery to the community by designing training programs; doing 'Done-In-A-Day' projects; at the Women's Habitat Shelter in the west; in the Keswick Literacy Program north of the city; with Variety Village in the east; and being mentors and creating workshops for The Pathways to Education Program in Regent Park.
